THE COBOURG & DISTRICT HISTORICAL SOCIETY IS PROUD TO PRESENT ...

The Three Wars of C-Force: In Battle, in the POW Camps and Against the Federal Government

Dr. Tim Cook, Director of Research at the Canadian War Museum will speak about Canada's C Force. Almost 2,000 soldiers and two nurses who formed C-Force were sent to defend the British Colony of Hong Kong only a month before the Japanese attacked on 7 December 1941.

On this 80th anniversary, Dr. Cook will explain the costly fighting and horrendous prisoner of war experience faced by the survivors. He will finish by exploring the long campaign by veterans and their families to ensure the memory of C-Force is not forgotten by Canadians.

Dr. Cook has curated over a dozen exhibitions and is the author or editor of 13 books. Many are national best sellers winning prestigious prizes. Dr. Cook is a recipient of the Governor General's History Award, the Queen's Diamond Jubilee Award and is a member of the Royal Society of Canada and the Order of Canada.
